The phrase "without regard to conflict of law principles" may be glossed over by a contracting party. Although, however cursory this phrase may appear to be, it is an important inclusion in a contract to avoid the imposition of the laws of another jurisdiction despite the intention of the contracting parties.

Conflict of laws - Wikipedia

When a case is subject to the laws of two or more jurisdictions, and the laws have contradicting provisions with respect to any of the matters in dispute, such a situation is referred to as conflict of laws. The conflict can be between the laws of different states, municipalities, and countries or between any of these laws and a federal law.

"Conflict of Laws" by David S. Stern

Conflict of Laws Defined. Conflict of laws signifies the difference between the laws of two or more jurisdictions that are applicable to a dispute in question. The results of the case depend upon the selection of the law to resolve the dispute. The conflict can be between federal and state laws, among the state laws themselves, or between the laws of different countries.
