Things are not always what they seem in Hell (which Dora the Demon Explorer found out). This genre is not usually something I willingly read. The series to which this book belongs to was suggested to me by one of my good friends. In case you are wondering which series, it is The Demon Diaries. I am glad I listened. Demonic Dora is the first book.

Claire Chilton has the tale of Dora Carradine, a normal teenager who gets into witchcraft as a rebellion against her preacher father. When one of her spells draws a demon her own age to the church, her father and the other townspeople think it's a good idea to burn her at a stake (yes in modern times - the sect is quit nutty) and she accepts the invitation of Kieron Lascher to come live with him in hell.
