by Ali Land. Ali Land's debut novel, GOOD ME BAD ME, capitalizes on our fascination with serial killers, but turns the perspective upside down by giving us the point of view of a child of a murderer. With a rapid-fire interior dialogue and a slow burn of tension, Land follows teenager Annie after she turns her mother into the police, as she prepares to testify against her, and as she does her best to find a new home and new family in the aftermath of her exceptionally abusive childhood.
