Because graphic design and visual design both focus on aesthetics, the line between the two disciplines is often blurred, especially when referencing digital designs. Websites and web app designs can be created by either visual designers or graphic designers. So why would someone call themselves one thing over the other? If all the work a designer is doing could be classed as visual design or graphic design, does it matter which one the designer calls themselves?

The 50 best graphic design quotes of all time.

Having a desire for expressive and symbolic images, but also interested in the total visual organization of the picture plane, graphic design artists created a dialogue between communicative imagery and design form that generated the energy of pictorial graphics. In the years after the World War I, visual arts moved beyond the threshold of pictorial imagery towards the invention of pure form.

Graphic Design, Referenced: A Visual Guide to the Language, Applications, and History of Graphic Design. It is both painful and cathartic to admit this in print and in the very first sentence of our introduction: This book is one of the hardest, most challenging, and most stressful projects we've undertaken. One part was simply the physical and logistical implications we experienced- writing close to 115,000 words, gathering more than 2,500 images and their respective release forms, and ...
