Why the Universe is the Way it is answers the big questions that atheists ask about why God would have created the universe in the manner in which it was created. Instead of the characteristics of the universe being purposeless, they are absolutely required to fulfill the purposes for which God created the universe.

BBC - Earth - Why is there something rather than nothing?

In his catechetical book Why the Universe Is the Way It Is, nature speaks first in the form of a cosmological fine-tuning argument from design. Fundamental properties of the universe and unique features of planet earth are improbably arranged, hence designed solely for our benefit. The remainder of the book cites Bible chapter and verse to ...

Einstein believed that the Universe was an infinitely large, all-encompassing blimp. His General Theory of Relativity suggested a model of a Universe that was homogenous, spatially curved and dominated by a single force - gravity. However, if gravity alone sculpts the structure of the Cosmos, then all matter in it must be impelled to be mutually attracted towards each other rendering the ...
